THURSDAY 26 March

LINTON KWESI JOHNSON

Will read his poetry. A Jamaican poet who examines the situation and the problems of the black community in contemporary Britain. His work reflect the determination and the fight of the black people for their rights.

THEATRO TECHNIS

Will present their current successful production of Aristophanes' social satire "Women In Assembly".

"A visually effective coup de theatre"
(in English) - Time Out

In "Women In Assembly" the women of Athens dressed as men succeed in passing a resolution that gives all state power to women.

SATURDAY 28 March

PULA ARTS KOMMUNE

Is an Azanian group of poets and drummers. Their poetry is delivered along music from the drums with amazing effect.

MANCUSO BROTHERS

The Mancuso Brothers are Sicilian immigrants. They write and perform their own poetry set to music of traditional character. They give a powerful and concert - an expression of the aspirations of immigrants.

FRIDAY 27 March

STEELan' SKIN

Is an Afro-Caribbean Arts Workshop of music and dance. They perform both traditional and modern works of music, stories and dance. Their performances are an exciting combination of visual and musical elements.

TARA ARTS GROUP

Asian group of poetry and theatre. Presents contemporary poetry, and other art forms, from the Indian sub-continent. Tara was formed in 1976 by young people of Asian origin in Wandsworth. Their aim is to provide artistic expression for the concerns of the Asian community in Britain. (Tara works in English)

SUNDAY 29 March

SARAGURO

Is a group of three highly skilfull Latin American musicians. They are equally capable of performing both classical and folk compositions. Their music reflects the South America's peoples struggles for freedom and social justice.

ALEM FRONTEIRAS
