Dear friends,

The Portuguese Theatre Group "Além Fronteiras" is now ready to show its new play "Para onde vou?" which deals with the question of emigration and some of the problems immigrants have to face in this country.

If you are interested in it, we would be very pleased to show it in one of your socials. In case you want to see it first, to get acquainted with the contents, you can come to the Ackhm Hall on the 30th November where we are going to perform it. Looking forward to hear from you.

Yours sincerely
